Montana libraries helping grantsseekers succeed

Five Montana libraries are designated members of the Cooperating Collections Network of the Foundation Center.

Foundation Center Cooperating Collections are created to help individuals and non-profit organizations locate potential grant funders. The centers provide:

The Foundation Center, headquartered in New York City, is the most authoritative publisher of up-to-date information on private philanthropy in the United States. Its mission is to support and improve philanthropy by promoting public understanding of the field and helping grantseekers succeed. Visit <http://www.fdncenter.org>

FCCC libraries have a core collection of essential print resources for grantseekers and non-profit organizations. Frequently used titles include:

- Guide to Winning Proposals*
  - The Foundation Directory (parts 1 and 2)*
  - Guide to U.S. Foundations, Their Trustees, Officers, and Donors*
  - National Directory of Corporate Giving*
  - Foundation Grants to Individuals*
  - National Guide to Funding for Libraries and Information Services*
  - National Guide to Funding in Health*
  - National Guide to Funding in Religion*
  - ...and numerous other subject guides and directories.
- F Computers with FC Search, the Foundation Center's database on CD-ROM, which lists and regularly updates information on over 70,000 U.S. grantmakers,
- F Internet access, books and periodicals with in-depth coverage of grant funding topics,
- F Trained professional staff available to answer questions, assist with searches, and provide periodic workshops.
